THE KANSAS COMMISSION ON DISABILITY CONCERNS (KCDC)

Provides policy recommendations to the State of Kansas on changes to laws, regulations and programs that affect people with disabilities. The Commission focuses its efforts on reducing barriers to employment for people with disabilities through many activities at the government and local and community level. KCDC is an informational and referral resource for people who are not sure where to go for their problem or issue.

Centers for Independent Living

Website: www.silck.org
(go to centers)

Centers for Independent Living (CIL) promote the self-reliance of individuals with disabilities through education, advocacy, training and support. The core services provided by all CILs are: individual and systems advocacy, information and referral services, peer counseling, independent living skills and deinstitutionalization. For satellite office locations, call or check the individual CIL websites. Centers may be able to provide services statewide.

 Go to Agency Information/Rehabilitation Services/Services for people who are blind or visually impaired.

Services for people who are blind or visually impaired are provided through a contract from the Vocational Rehabilitation Services to two groups: Alphapointe Association for the Blind, Kansas City and Envision Vision Rehabilitation Center, Wichita. These groups provide services to support independent living and employment. These groups increase capacity in specialized areas such as orientation and mobility, rehabilitation teaching, independent living skills training, Braille instruction and assistive technology.

Community Developmental Disability Organization

Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services (KDADS)

Website: www.kdads.ks.gov/Services/Services_Index.html

Community Development Disability Organizations (CDDOs) are the single point of entry for an individual or family to obtain services through the developmental disabilities system in Kansas. CDDOs are responsible for determining whether a person qualifies for services, working with the person and/or the person's family or guardian in choosing from service options and referring those persons to other agencies if additional supports are needed.

Area Agencies on Aging

<https://www.k4ad.org>

Area Agencies on Aging (AAAs) are grassroots organizations built to respond to the needs of their local communities. Each AAA manages programs and services designed to meet the needs of its particular area. Each agency's mission is to deliver easily accessible, top-quality services that sustain healthy lifestyles and support self-sufficiency in the aging population.

Long-Term Care Ombudsman Offices

Website: <https://www.ombudsman.ks.gov>

Kansas Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program's purpose is to ensure that residents of long-term care facilities receive quality care. The Ombudsman serves as a resident advocate who seeks to promote individual rights, dignity and independence. Ombudsmen are volunteers who provide support and assistance with problems or complaints involving residents of long-term care facilities.

Jobs for Veterans Program

The Jobs for Veterans State Grant (JVSG) program is run by the Kansas Department of Commerce and funded by the U.S. Department of Labor. It helps eligible veterans and other qualified individuals find meaningful work. JVSG staff include Disabled Veterans' Outreach Program (DVOP) specialists and Local Veterans' Employment Representatives (LVERs), who provide one-on-one help with job searches, career planning, and connecting to training or other support. The goal is to help veterans overcome challenges and find long-term success in the workforce.

Additionally, transitioning service members and their families can visit KanVet.org to access vet-specific resources and benefits in the state of Kansas without having to navigate multiple state agencies. This includes employment, education and other support resources.

Ryan White Part B Program

http://www.kdheks.gov/sti_hiv/ryan_white_care.htm

The Ryan White Part B Program in the State of Kansas has been assisting Kansans living with HIV before the enactment of The Ryan White HIV/AIDS Treatment Modernization Act in 1990. The program assists with medications through statewide AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP), medical case management, primary care services, dental care services, mental health and substance abuse services through the Housing Opportunities for People with Aides (HOPWA) program;

The purpose of these funds is to provide care for persons living with HIV infection who are not covered by public or private sources. These resources assure that all Kansans living with HIV infection throughout the state have access to the resources to monitor, adhere, and treat infection, in order to achieve the highest quality of life possible.

Community Mental Health Centers

Website: www.kdads.ks.gov/CSP/MH_Index.html

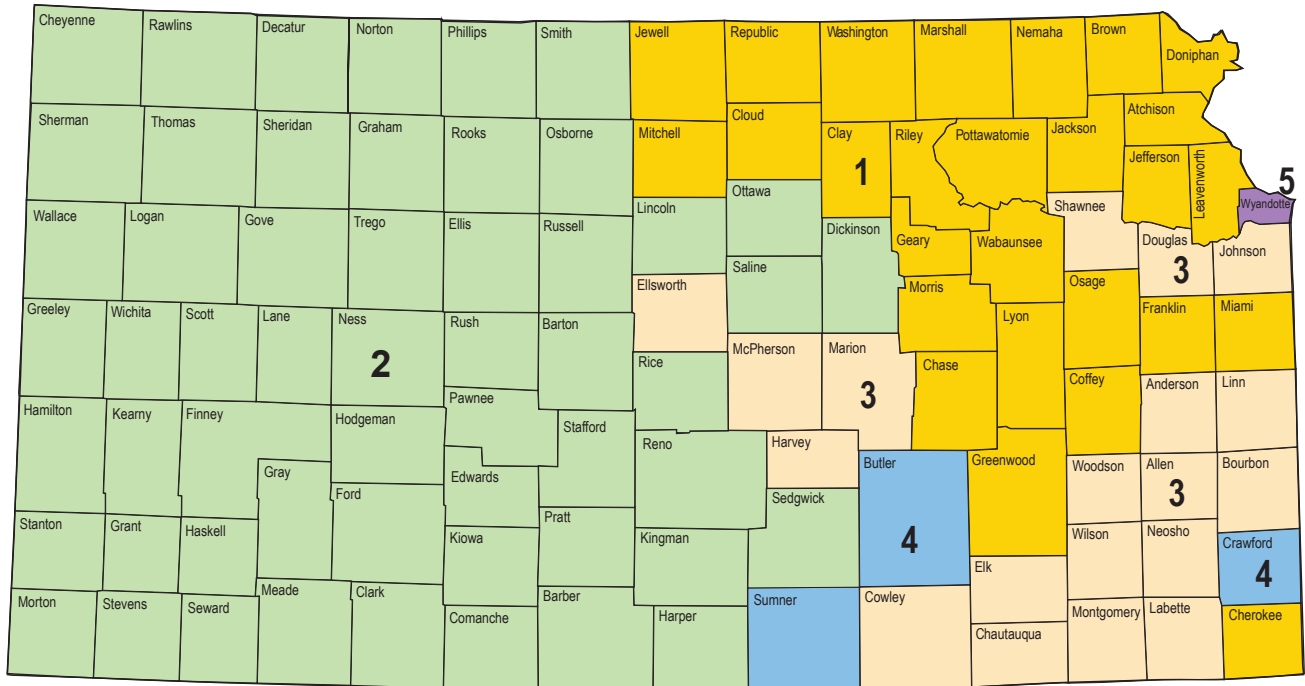

Community Mental Health Centers (CMHCs) are the local coordinating agencies for delivery of public community-based mental health services. CMHCs are administered under the Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services (KDADS). CMHCs are person-centered, value-based providers of mental health and support services for Kansans with mental illness. They assist people with mental illness in living healthy, successful and self-determined lives in their homes and communities.

Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE)

<https://www.kdads.ks.gov/services-programs/aging/program-of-all-inclusive-care-for-the-elderly-pace>

PACE is designed for seniors with chronic care needs and their families to allow qualified individuals the opportunity to live in their community for as long as possible. PACE uses Medicare and Medicaid funds to cover all medically necessary care and services. Consumers can be enrolled in either Medicare or Medicaid, or both, to join PACE. They can also pay for PACE privately, if they do not have either.

Currently PACE is not available in all Kansas counties. For more information call the Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services (KDADS) at (785) 296-8288.
